

ANDY GARTRELL

FULL BIO

Andy Gartrell is a remarkable one-man band musician hailing from the vibrant music scene of Wellington, New Zealand. With a rich musical journey spanning eight years, Andy has carved a niche for himself as a versatile and captivating performer.

Having developed a deep passion for music at an early age, Andy's talent quickly flourished, leading him on a path to become a self-contained musical sensation. Armed with an array of instruments and a looping pedal, he creates a symphony of sound that is nothing short of mesmerizing.

A noteworthy milestone in Andy's musical journey was his recent engagement as a Principal Musician on Norwegian Cruise Line vessels. Transporting his distinctive talent to the global seascape, he delighted passengers of diverse backgrounds with his captivating performances. His remarkable capacity to take center stage as a one-man band, seamlessly intertwining melodies and rhythms, garnered him praise from audiences around the globe.

As he enters his ninth year as a professional musician, Andy Gartrell continues to captivate audiences with his one-of-a-kind talent. His ability to command multiple instruments simultaneously and create a full, immersive musical experience is a testament to his dedication and artistry. Whether on a cruise ship stage or in the heart of Wellington's music scene, Andy's music resonates with all who have the pleasure of experiencing it, leaving a lasting impression that transcends borders and boundaries.